

GUIDELINES FOR COMPENSATION FOR SERVICES RENDERED AND REIMBURSEMENT OF EXPENSES IN CHAPTER 13 CASES

The Chapter 13 Standing Trustees for the Eastern and Western Districts of Arkansas will consider the following guidelines when reviewing awards of compensation and reimbursement of expenses for attorneys representing debtors in Chapter 13 cases and recommending approval by the Bankruptcy Court:

1. An attorney seeking interim or final compensation for services or reimbursement of necessary expenses from an estate in a Chapter 13 case shall file an application as set forth in Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 2016.
2. As an alternative to the “long form” application procedures outlined in Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 2016, an attorney may file a “short form” application for a summary compensation award of fees and costs in a Chapter 13 case for the services through confirmation of the plan as described in Paragraph 3.

In seeking a summary compensation award amount, the attorney should consider the reasonableness of the compensation and the circumstances surrounding the case.

3. The Chapter 13 Trustee shall recommend to the court for approval of maximum summary compensation awards as described below.
  - a. For a below median income debtor (non-business case) - $4,300;
  - b. For an above median income (non-business case) - $4,750;
  - c. For a debtor with a business case - $5,250;
4. Upon confirmation, the Chapter 13 Trustee shall pay the summary compensation award from funds paid by the debtor(s):
  - a. As follows:
    1. FOR CASES WITH MONTHLY PLAN PAYMENTS LESS THAN $200, an initial portion of the summary compensation award in an amount not to exceed $1,000, after first paying administrative costs, including applicable Trustee’s fees and administrative fees; or
    2. FOR CASES WITH MONTHLY PLAN PAYMENTS BETWEEN $200 AND $499, an initial portion of the summary compensation award in an amount not to exceed $1,200, after first paying administrative costs, including applicable Trustee’s fees and administrative fees; or

3. FOR CASES WITH MONTHLY PLAN PAYMENTS MORE THAN $500, an initial portion of the summary compensation award in an amount not to exceed $1,500, after first paying administrative costs, including applicable Trustee's fees and administrative fees;

and

- b. The remaining summary compensation award shall be paid at a rate not to exceed twenty-five percent (25%) from the total amount disbursed to creditors each month.
  - c. Notwithstanding the above provisions (4(a) and 4(b)), generally, if there are only nonpriority unsecured claims to be paid in the plan or remaining to be paid in the plan, the attorney's fees shall be paid at the rate of 100% of the total plan payment, after first paying administrative costs, including applicable Trustee's fees and administrative fees, until paid in full.
  - d. Additionally, if requested, expenses based on the parameters described in Paragraph 9 also may be reimbursed.
5. The summary compensation awarded pursuant to these guidelines is based upon the attorney providing adequate legal services to the debtor. The full amount of the summary compensation award shall be deemed fully earned at the date of the confirmation of the Chapter 13 plan. These legal services shall include, but not be limited to:
- a. The preparation and filing of complete and accurate petition, schedules, statement of financial affairs, disclosure of compensation, Form B22C, fee application and related documents based upon information obtained from the debtor and following reasonable inquiry; advising and assisting regarding the requirements for credit counseling and tax returns/transcripts; obtaining extensions or imposition of automatic stay; responding to debtor audit requests;
  - b. The filing of a confirmable plan;
  - c. Consultation with the debtor in person and prior to the filing of the bankruptcy case and as necessary to obtain confirmation of the debtor's plan;
  - d. The appearance and representation of the debtor at all scheduled § 341(a) meetings of creditors;

- e. Advising the debtor regarding the requirements for obtaining a discharge, including eligibility for discharge; the need to complete a course in personal financial management provided by an approved agency; and the need to satisfy requirements regarding domestic support obligations and filing required domestic support obligation documents with the bankruptcy court;
  - f. Filing with bankruptcy court, on behalf of the debtor, a statement regarding the completion of a course in personal financial management required by Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 1007(b)(7) (or subsequent rules) and any required statements regarding the status of domestic support obligations;
  - g. Consultation with the debtor from time-to-time after confirmation regarding the status of the case and steps needed for plan completion, including without limitation, changes of address, changes in employer/employee withholding, review of summary notices of claims, review of annual/semi-annual reports, and review or preparation of miscellaneous correspondence regarding the case; and
  - h. Compliance with all requirements of the Bankruptcy Code, Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, General Orders, Local Rules and procedures.
6. For substitutions of counsel that occur prior to confirmation of the plan or prior to the payment of the summary compensation award, the compensation will continue to be paid according to the order awarding the summary compensation (usually the first attorney providing services) unless the Bankruptcy Court orders an amended or different allocation of the compensation. Only one “summary compensation award” for services pursuant to Paragraphs 3, 4 and 5 above will be recommended by the Chapter 13 Trustee for approval by the Bankruptcy Court. The substituting attorney may file a “long form” application pursuant to Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 2016, however, for actual services rendered.
7. Upon dismissal of a case with an unconfirmed plan, the Chapter 13 Trustee will not conclude that funds on hand are an award of the full previously approved summary compensation award pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 503(b) and 1326(d)(2) without further order of the Bankruptcy Court. The summary compensation award pursuant to Paragraphs 3, 4 and 5 above is awarded “summarily” upon confirmation of the plan.
8. As an alternative to the “long form” application process outlined in Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 2016, an attorney also may file a “short form” application for a summary compensation award of fees and costs for additional services primarily rendered post-confirmation or as specified below pursuant to the following guidelines:

- a. The Chapter 13 Trustee shall be authorized to calculate and recommend to the court for approval amounts for summary compensation awards for pre- or post-confirmation services as described in Subparagraph 8(b). All services are subject to an actual, reasonable and necessary standard and review by the Court upon motion or objection by the Trustee or other parties.

- c. In seeking compensation for additional services, the attorney should consider the circumstances surrounding the matters for which additional fees are sought and the reasonableness of the additional fee amounts requested.
  - d. For all additional services for which the attorney is seeking a summary compensation award, the debtor and the Chapter 13 Trustee should receive copies of the application for additional services. For applications for additional services not signed by the debtor, the debtor should be provided notice and opportunity to object (21 days) of the application. Notwithstanding the 21-day period described for the debtor in this paragraph, the Trustee will not object, recommend for approval or submit an order to the Court approving the application until the underlying matter for which the fee is sought is concluded.
  - e. Fee applications for additional services should be submitted within six months of the conclusion of the matters for which the fee is sought (or sooner if the plan is nearing completion). The Trustee may request additional information or substantiation of the services if applications are submitted more than six months after the conclusion of the matter for which the fee is sought.
  - f. For additional services not listed above or as an alternative for the services listed above, an attorney may file a “long form” application for additional fees upon the conclusion of the matter for which the additional services are performed describing the dates and work performed along with a notice and opportunity to object (21 days) to the Chapter13 Trustee, debtor, creditors and interested parties.
